2. CORE DESCRIPTION
The Attorney General is the attorney for the state, representing the legal interests of Missouri and its state agencies. As the state's chief legal officer, the attorney general and his assistants engage in five critical activities on behalf of Missourians and our state: Prosecuting Criminals: The Attorney General's Office prosecutes a wide range of criminal matters at the trial level, including death penalty cases, child sex crimes, and other serious matters. The Attorney General's Office prosecutes these cases either by appointment as a special prosecutor, or as an assistant to the locally elected county prosecutor. The Attorney General's Office also prosecutes cases involving fraud of the state's Medicaid program. Aside from prosecutions at the trial level, the Attorney General's Office also handles the appeal of every felony criminal case appealed to the Missouri Supreme Court and the intermediate courts of appeal. Protecting Consumers: The Attorney General's Office enforces Missouri's consumer protection laws, antitrust laws, and prosecutes security fraud. As part of its consumer protection function, the Attorney General's Office also enforces Missouri's No-Call law, which reduces unwanted telemarketing calls to Missouri families. Conserving the Environment: The Attorney General's Office protects Missouri's natural resources by taking legal action to stop pollution, seek monetary fines and penalties, and in the most serious cases, criminally prosecute those who violate Missouri's environmental laws. Additionally, the Attorney General's Office enhances agriculture and the quality of life for rural Missourians by enforcing Missouri's agricultural laws, and protecting the state's interest in the Missouri River. Serving Missouri: The Attorney General's Office serves as legal counsel to over 30 Missouri state agencies, boards and commissions. The Attorney General's Office handles referrals from these agencies and advises them on legal matters. Defending Missouri: The Attorney General's Office defends state officials, state agencies and their employees in all types of civil litigation, including constitutional challenges to state law.
